C. OF C. DRIVE MEETS SUCCESS

More Than $50,000 Had Been Pledged Up to Noon Friday

More than $50,000 had been either collected or pledged up to noon Friday in the Chamber of Commerce campaign to obtain funds with which to erect the proposed civic center building and increase the organization's operating budget for the coming year, report to this effect was made at the weekly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at Hotel Tulsa Friday noon.

The exact amount announced by Gibbons was $51,213. Of this amount, $3,323 was given directly for the operating budget, $13,000 for either the building or the budget, or both, and $23,000 for the civic building. Contributors of the $3,323 announced, have at their disposal wherever needed most. Subscriptions totaling $1,600 reached Gibbons during the meeting.

The ten committees, which started out Tuesday morning, have attempted to get only those who would give from $100 to $500. Another committee of six business men will start operations Monday morning to solicit those whom they believe should give $1,000 or more. A committee of 50, under Silas Bearden, began work Friday morning and is to interview all members of the Chamber of Commerce who give $12 a year to ascertain whether they are willing to increase their subscriptions.

A total of $105,000 is needed to care for the budget and the civic building, according to Gibbons.

A. L. Farmer, a member of the "thousand-dollar committee," who presided at Friday's meeting, anticipates it will not be difficult for that committee to obtain at least $20,000.

CAT BREAKS UP RACE

Inquisitive Feline Gets Mixed Up With Machinery and Greyhound Race Waits for Repairs

MIAMI, Fla., May 5.—A black cat caused abandonment one day recently of the greyhound race meet being conducted here by the Miami Kennel club and the dogs now are chasing a new mechanical rabbit. A small electric trolley is laid in the center of the course and at the beginning of a race a stuffed rabbit, mounted on the trolley, is started from the tape. The bunny is given a green yard start and the released greyhounds, at a signal, do their utmost to catch it. A few yards beyond the finish the rabbit ducks into a trap door while the dogs are clocked as they cross the line.

The dogs for five weeks had chased the rabbit when an inquiring black cat wandered onto the course. One of the judges, to save the kitty from rough handling by the hounds, did 100 yards in 10 seconds flat and captured her. The cat was released behind the grandstand with a warning and it was believed she would stay put. She didn't.

The first race got under way and the stuffed rabbit was making a streak down the course with the greyhounds in full tilt after it. At the post marking the sixteenth of a mile things began to happen. The coming of the trolley drew into the air and bunny came to a halt. Six greyhounds pounced upon it.

The cat, disregarding the warning, had wandered onto the track again and had climbed on a trolley under the trolley casing for a while. The swiftly-moving bunny struck her and jammed the mechanism.

The manager, who issued rain checks to the spectators, sent for several carpenters to repair damage, raised a taxidermist's shop for another stuffed rabbit, and the races were resumed next day.

Motorist Finds Dead Body of Baby in Bag

The dead body of a baby wrapped in swaddling clothes was found by motorists near Twenty-seventh street and Sunset drive about 10 o'clock Friday morning. The body was inside of a handbag which was sitting near the curb.

The suitcase was almost new and drew the attention of the motorist, he told the police. He stopped the car thinking perhaps someone had lost the bag, he said. Police are investigating further.

Hanna Girl's Stomach Is Found to Contain Poison

HOPESTON, Ill., May 5.—Examination of the vital organs of Miss Gertrude Hanna, former choir girl who was mysteriously slain, revealed poison, it became known today. The authorities regarded this fact as the most important disclosure since the finding of the girl's lifeless body eight days ago in the United Presbyterian church parsonage. New and vigorous action in the search for Miss Hanna's slayer is expected to follow the discovery that poison was given to her.

Dead Man Nominated In Indiana Township

MARION, Ind., May 5.—Voters of Milltown township, Grant county, nominated a dead man on the republican ticket for justice of the peace. James P. Gardner, who has been dead three weeks, received six more votes than did James McKaughan. Gardner died after the primary ballots were printed. McKaughan will be given the nomination.

To encourage civilian aviation Japan will experiment with an aerial mail service between Tokyo and Osaka, 250 miles apart.

Boston Woman Indicted For Killing Her Husband

BOSTON, Mass., May 5.—Carrie Hubbard was indicted here today for the murder of her husband, William B. Hubbard, the "germicide king." Mrs. Hubbard is alleged to have shot her husband during a quarrel over her alleged intimacies with Edmund Haddock of Chicago, a World War veteran, who had been visiting the Hubbards.

CAN DIVIDE LOVE, SAYS DR. TRIDON

100 Per Cent Affection Is Possible for Either Sex With Another

NEW YORK, May 5.—"It is entirely possible for any man to love 100 per cent two different women, or one woman to love 100 per cent two different men," Dr. Andrie Tridon declared today, joining battle with Dr. David Forsyth of Washington, in the realm of psycho-analysis.

Tridon, leading authority in his line, declared to the International News Service that his deductions in the subject were based on years of collection of statistics.

Forsyth had declared man to be incapable of being "head over heels in love" with more than one woman at a time, but that he might be "half in love" with two or one-twelfth in love with a dozen.

"Two wholehearted loves are possible for a man or for a woman, but any increase beyond that means merely flirtation or promiscuity," Tridon said.

"The confirmed flirt is a woman who lacks self confidence, who must constantly make new conquests in order to reassure herself of her charms and attractiveness."

"The don Juan is a weakling. He moves from one attachment to another, conscious always of his inability to hold his loves."

"No man or woman may love two individuals fully, but three, five or a dozen—that is impossible. That is not love."

WORLD LECTURER ARRIVES TODAY

Mrs. Chase Will Open Exposition at 1 O'clock Next Monday

Mrs. Florence Austin Chase arrives Saturday afternoon from Memphis, Tenn., to begin her work as demonstrator and lecturer for The World's Better Homes Exposition and Cooking School. With her arrival final plans are being completed and the last detailed arrangements for the opening Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock made.

Interest in Mrs. Chase and her lectures are in no wise confined to housekeepers. Young girls, some of them domestic science students and others merely interested in the science of housekeeping are making their plans to attend The World's exposition. Club girls from over the county and scores of The World's readers from within a radius of 60 miles are studying the week's program with the plan of coming to Tulsa as often during the week as possible to hear Mrs. Chase. It is not often that the privilege of hearing so noted and undisputed an authority as Mrs. Chase is offered and her course of lectures this coming week will be in the nature of a short course in housekeeping science.

The World is extending invitation to all women of eastern Oklahoma to take advantage of the opportunity of hearing Mrs. Chase. No charge of any kind is made. The doors will be opened at 1 o'clock and for the entertainment of its guests The World is presenting E. C. Legg, organizer of the Majestic theatre, in concert from 1 to 2 o'clock each afternoon of the exposition. The concert program will appear each morning of the week in connection with Mrs. Chase's program.

It is suggested, in order that everyone may derive the greatest benefit from the lectures, that each woman bring a sauce and spoon with her to test the food Mrs. Chase will serve in demonstration of her recipes.

Want Chicago Indictment Of School Board Head

CHICAGO, May 5.—Demand for the indictment of William A. Bither, attorney for the Chicago board of education, was made to the grand jury this afternoon by Ernest S. Hodges, of the state's attorney's staff. The request of the indictments followed the transfer of land adjoining the Wendell Phillips high school to the board of education for $25,000. Shortly after Hodges went before the grand jury it was reported that Bither and H. W. Kaup, a building wrecker, were indicted on two counts each, charging conspiracy and larceny and embezzlement.

Peggy Joyce Will Sail For America on Sunday

PARIS, May 5.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce, who again is in the limelight as the result of the suicide of her friend, "Billy" Erzurum, said this afternoon she will sail for the United States on the liner Mauretania on Sunday, "unless she changes her mind."

Peggy received a cablegram at 3 o'clock saying her mother had not improved and that her condition was serious. She decided to start immediately for home, packed her trunk, sold her hotel bill and engaged passage aboard the Mauretania, sailing tomorrow. She announced that she will return to Paris probably in about seven weeks. Jack Dempsey is still stopping at the Claridge. Peggy did not attend the funeral of "Billy" Erzurum, whose suicide she denied having caused.

Nolan's Resolution Proposes Coal Body

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Creation of a special federal commission with extraordinary powers to investigate the coal industry in the United States, is provided in a resolution favorably reported to the house today by Chairman Nolan of the house labor committee, which has been conducting an investigation of the nation-wide coal strike.

RICHARD CROKER IS LAID TO REST

Only Few Mourners at Funeral; Wife Plans Return to U. S.

GLENCAIRN CASTLE, Ireland, May 5.—In the presence of only a handful of mourners, the remains of Richard Croker, former leader of Tammany hall in New York City, were buried here today upon the estate where the deceased had spent the last years of his life breeding blooded horses.

The coffin was borne upon the sturdy shoulders of half a dozen Irish workmen. It was placed in a sealed vault which had been built sometime ago under the personal direction of Mr. Croker.

Requiem mass was celebrated in the little chapel upon the Croker estate by the Rev. Father Kelly. During the ceremony Mrs. Croker, the widow, and her brother knelt beside the bronze casket. Most of the remainder of the persons present were newspaper reporters and employees upon the Croker estate.

The whole ceremony was marked by the same simplicity with which the former Tammany leader had lived during the latter years of his life.
